WHEN HEAVYWEIGHTS MET.

A Notable Encounter Between Messrs. Garland Daniel and Walter Henry.

As most people in Greensboro know, Mr. Garland Daniel, the sporting goods man, is an athlete of no mean pretensions. He is perfectly at home with dumb bells, boxing gloves and other athletic appliances, and, so far as is known, has never been downed in an encounter.

Those acquainted with Mr. Walter R. Henry, of Charlotte, the National bank examiner, also know that he is no slouch when it comes to athletic performances. He is somewhat larger than Mr. Daniel, but it seems that he is no stronger, at least was not a few years ago. In the following paragraph the Charlotte Observer tells of a notable encounter between Messrs. Daniel and Henry, in which the latter gentleman was worsted:

"The only man that ever whipped Mr. Henry in his own back yard was a big fellow named Garland Daniel, of Greensboro, who stands about 6 feet 5 in his stocking feet, covers four feet in his stride and has arms about five feet long. Several years ago Mr. Henry secured Mr. Daniel's consent to box and then led him into his back yard. The first thing Mr. Henry did was to pick up a 90-pound dumb bell in one hand and an anvil in the other and commence to juggle them in the air—just for exercise. Daniel's eyes protruded and he wished he hadn't come, but, being ashamed to follow his impulse to jump the fence, he put on his gloves and squared himself for the fray. It was a noble encounter. With regularity and fortunate unpremeditation Mr. Henry delivered 1,000-pound blows, but Daniel fought a nervous, active, scared fight and soon had the examiner on the hop. He boxed in constant memory of the biggest dumb bell, and he felt no peace till he had knocked the examiner down and was trotting home with his coat under his arm."

THE COUNTY CONVICTS.

Apparently a Happy and Contented Lot of People—The Vexing Problems of Life Removed.

It is doubtful if, taking everything into consideration, there is a happier or more contented lot of people to be found anywhere than the negro convicts on the county road force. A drive by the camp near Pomona yesterday afternoon found about 25 of them lounging around the stockade. Some were eating, some were talking, some were sleeping the hours away, and all were lazily happy and indifferent to their surroundings.

No hard problems of life vex them. They have furnished them a sufficient quantity of food and raiment. For what more should they wish?

An Insurance Company Establishes a State Agency in Greensboro.

The Fidelity Mutual Life Insurance Company, of Philadelphia, will establish a State agency for North Carolina in Greensboro in charge of Verser & Jones. These gentlemen are now in the State appointing local agents and preparing to open their headquarters in this city.

Messrs. T. H. Tate and S. C. Toad have been appointed local agents for Greensboro.

Guilford Defeats Bingham School.

Correspondence of The Telegram.

Guilford College, Oct. 22.—From the standpoint of a close football game the contest between Guilford and Bingham at Guilford College Saturday was a failure. From the first rush it was apparent that Bingham stood no chance of winning. They were a plucky, gritty set of men, but they lacked the practice necessary to compete successfully with Guilford.

The first touchdown was made in just one and one-half minutes after the game began. Four minutes later James Lewis, of Greensboro, broke around Bingham's left end and carried the ball twenty-three yards up the field. A moment later Daniels took it up for a thirty-yard dash and scored again.

The one sensational play in the game was Daniels' ninety-yard run up the field for a touchdown from a kick off. The score was 35 to 0 in favor of Guilford. A number of visitors from Greensboro witnessed the game.

THIRD MAN FOUND GUILTY.

SENTENCED TO LIFE IMPRISONMENT.

Taylor's Former Stenographer Declared an Accomplice in the Murder of the Governor of Kentucky—Powers Was Tried for Complicity and James Howard Was Sentenced to Death as the Principal in the Shooting.

Georgetown, Ky., Oct. 20.—"We the jury, find the defendant guilty and fix his punishment at life imprisonment." This verdict was returned by the twelve men who were selected to try Henry E. Youtsey, formerly Governor Taylor's stenographer, on the charge of being a principal in the shooting of Governor Wm. Goebel, in front of the executive building at Frankfort on January 30. When the jury entered the court room, a few minutes after 9 o'clock this morning, Judge Cantrell asked: "Gentlemen, have you made a verdict?" Foreman R. H. McCabe nodded his head. "Pass up the papers to the clerk," said the judge. The sheriff passed them up and the clerk read the following verdict: "We, the jury, find the defendant guilty and fix his punishment at confinement in the penitentiary for life."

"Gentlemen, is that your verdict?" asked the judge.

"It is," was the reply.

"Gentlemen, you are now finally discharged and you can call on the trustees of the jury fund for your pay," said Judge Cantrell. The jury filed out of the room and the most dramatic trial in the Kentucky courts for many years was at an end. It was learned that no ballot was taken last night, although it was practically agreed that a verdict of guilty would be found. This morning the vote was unanimous that Youtsey was guilty. Then the degree of punishment was taken up. On this question the jury was somewhat divided, but finally agreed on the life sentence.

Henry Youtsey is the third man to be found guilty in connection with the Goebel shooting. Caleb Powers, tried on the charge of complicity, was sentenced to life imprisonment, while James Howard, tried on indictment, with being a principal in the shooting was sentenced to death.

During the early days of Youtsey's trial the prisoner exhibited signs of breaking down. While Arthur Goebel, brother of the dead man, was on the stand testifying, Youtsey rose in the prisoner's dock and denounced the witness in wild exclamations, while Youtsey's wife screamed that Goebel had sworn away the life of her husband. Later the prisoner became unconscious, and, according to attending physicians, has since practically been inanimate. His bed has been carried to the door of the jury room, where it stood in plain view of the court, its occupant apparently oblivious to his surroundings.

Motions for a continuance were overruled by Judge Cantrell, who declared that he was powerless to stop the trial unless the defendant be adjudged a lunatic. Youtsey on yesterday showed considerable improvement, however, and his physicians stated that he had resumed taking nourishment in the regular manner, while his respiration was rapidly becoming normal. The defense filed a motion for an arrest of judgment and Judge Cantrell set it for hearing on the 2nd day of the February term. Therefore, Youtsey will not be sentenced until next year. Youtsey was ordered removed to the Frankfort jail.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS TODAY.

Roosevelt started this morning at eleven o'clock on his trip up New York State. A large demonstration is going on at Newberg this afternoon. He will travel 2,000 miles and is scheduled to make ninety-three speeches.

A crowd of women at the Empire washery, in the strike region, attacked a number of workmen with sticks and stones and drove them from their work.

The bodies of G. Harvey Pettis and Daisy Blydenburg were found in a public park in Corry, Pa., this morning, both shot through the temple. Investigation disclosed that a secret marriage had taken place and the couple had been opposed in their courtship. Pettis moved in good society and was of a well connected family.

DEATH OF SHERMAN.

Passed Away Early This Morning Surrounded by His Family.

By Wire to The Telegram.

Washington, Oct. 22.—Ex-Secretary of State John Sherman died early this morning. His family was at his bedside all night.

THE ATONEMENT OF CHRIST.

Dr. Rowe Preached a Forceful Sermon on This Subject Yesterday Morning.

Dr. Rowe used as his text yesterday morning the words found in Luke 19:10: "For the Son of Man is come to save that which was lost." Christ came to save the whole world; his atonement is universal, and for everyone, whosoever will. "God so loved the world that he gave his only begotten son that whosoever believeth in him should not be lost but have everlasting life." The atonement was made for man, but unless man accepts it he will be lost. Christ has made the atonement but man must accept it before it becomes redemption, and without redemption he cannot be saved. This is where Calvinism and Arminianism separate. Calvinism sees redemption for only a few, while Arminianism sees atonement made for all and accepted by few. The atonement is made; God asks you to accept, the angels in heaven beg you to accept, Christ hanging on the cross cries out for you to accept, the very law which condemns you offers you pardon; will you not accept it and be saved? An earnest plea for sinners to come forward followed the sermon.

At night Dr. Rowe preached to a large congregation from the text: "Except a man be born of water and of the spirit he cannot enter into the kingdom of God."

The services will be continued through this week.

Thought Chief Scott Knew Everything.

A negro who, for the want of a better name, is called "Snowball" approached Chief of Police Scott this morning in evident distress and asked for a warrant for the arrest of a negro who had stolen a hat, a pair of pants and a silk bosom shirt from him. When questioned as to the thief's name and whereabouts, "Snowball" only knew that his name was Tom and that he had gone to South Carolina. He thought, as a matter of course, that the Chief should be able to furnish all other needed information.

An Exceedingly Quiet Sabbath.

Yesterday was an exceedingly quiet day in Greensboro, considering the fact that the town was full of visiting statesmen. The police officers had absolutely nothing to do but stand around in an impudent manner and look wise.

The only disturbance reported during the day was a fight between a colored man and his family on South Elm street, and when an officer arrived the belligerent husband and father had flown.

Alamance Mill Trouble Believed to be Nearing an End.

A gentleman from Graham told The Telegram today that it was believed the cotton mill trouble in Alamance was nearing an end. Some of the union operatives, he said, were returning to work and the indications were that a majority of the others would do likewise.

The gentleman added that if the operatives did not return to work this week the mills would send men throughout the country to engage other help.

Exhibits for the State Fair.

The Agricultural and Mechanical College for the colored race this morning shipped exhibits to Raleigh to be entered at the State fair. The exhibits were accompanied by the master and the forman of the blacksmith shop.

The college will also make extensive exhibits at the colored State fair.

Visitors at the A. and M. College.

At the Agricultural and Mechanical College for the colored race last night the students were addressed by H. G. Cheatham, recorder of deeds for the District of Columbia, and James H. Young and E. A. Johnson, of Raleigh. The visitors spoke on "Christian Stewardship."

GATHERING OF THE CLANS.

A GREAT REPUBLICAN MEETING.

In Obedience to the Mandate of Senator Pritchard, the Faithful Came from Far and Near—"Visiting Statesmen" Galore Filled the Town Yesterday and Today—Came to Discuss the Political Situation in North Carolina and to Contribute to the Campaign Fund.

Yesterday and today there has been a great gathering of Republicans in Greensboro, and many were the "faithful" who came in obedience to the mandate of their State chairman, Senator Jeter C. Pritchard. The "visiting statesmen" began to arrive yesterday morning, and every train that arrived during the day brought additions to the company. They came from all quarters of the State and represented every grade of the Republican politician—from the $2-a-day storekeeper and guager to the $6,000-a-year United States marshal.

Revenue officers composed a majority of the crowd, but there were postmasters, deputy collectors, deputy marshals, United States commissioners, county chairmen, county officers and plain everyday privates in the rear ranks. In short, it was a typical Republican gathering. The following is a partial list of those in attendance: Senator Pritchard; Collector Duncan, United States Marshal Dockery, Postmaster Bailey, District Attorney Bernard and his chief clerk, E. A. Johnson, colored, and James H. Young, colored, of Raleigh; H. G. Cheatham, colored, recorder of deeds for the District of Columbia, and Wilson Carey, colored, late of the county of Caswell, but now, by the grace of William McKinley, occupant of a Federal office in Washington; Collector Harkins, of Asheville, and James E. Norton, editor of the Asheville Gazette; District Attorney Holton and his assistant, E. Spencer Blackburn, of Winston; Oliver H. and Claudio Dockery, of Rockingham; Seymour Hanock and Meyer Hahn, of Newberne; Postmaster O'Brien, J. C. Angier and W. T. O'Brien, of Durham; H. C. Crowles, clerk of the Federal Court at Statesville; Postmaster Mullen, of Charlotte; Dr. D. H. Abbott, of the North Carolina Corporation Commission; Postmaster Lutterloh, of Sanford; J. R. Joyce, candidate for Congress in this district; Samuel Paul Satterfield, chairman of the Person county executive committee; Postmaster Waller, of Burlington; D. W. Patrick, of Snow Hill; Maj. Hiram L. Grant, of Goldsboro; Postmaster Hasty, of Monroe; United States Commissioner Sanders, of Albemarle; W. J. Sutton, of Bladen county; John D. Massey, of Smithfield; R. L. Burns, of Carthage; Dr. M. D. Kimbrough, of Mocksville; Frank D. Jones, of Gulf, and Attorney-General Walser. In addition to these, there were numerous local politicians.

Probably the most picturesque figure in the group was Wilson Carey, colored, who, as mentioned above, occupies a comfortable berth in Washington. In the reconstruction days he developed into a leader of the Republican forces in Caswell, holding the position with undisputed sway for many years. It was Wils. who, while a member of the Legislature, originated the historic expression, "the archives of gravity."

It was rather difficult for an outsider to get at the exact object of the meeting. In fact, many of the leaders themselves did not know for what purpose they had been called to Greensboro. It was suggested that Senator Pritchard called them together for the purpose of declaring a dividend of campaign funds and making a division of some of Mark Hanna's money, but as it has generally been understood that the National Committee has sent but little, if any, money to North Carolina this year this view was probably incorrect. A more plausible view is that the meeting was for the purpose of raising campaign funds, or, as a Greensboro Republican expressed it, "to fry the fat out of the office holders."

At 9 o'clock this morning the "visiting statesmen" wended their way to Republican headquarters, on North Elm street, where a conference was held for an hour or two. They

WADDELL WITHDRAWS.

Simmons and Carr Now the Only Contenders in the Senatorial Race.

A telegram received from Wilmington this afternoon announced officially that Hon. Alfred M. Waddell had today withdrawn from the race for United States Senator. This leaves the field open to Gen. Carr and Mr. Simmons.

Mr. Waddell's withdrawal has been expected for a week or more.

DEATH OF A DESCENDANT.

Mrs. McNeill, of Carthage, Grand-daughter of Dr. Glascock, of the Patriot Army, Passes Away.

Carthage Tribune.

In the death of Mrs. Fannie McNeill, which occurred on Thursday, October 11th, 1900, at 5 o'clock p. m., at the home of her son, Col. A. H. McNeill, in this place, Carthage lost one of its most worthy women, and an old landmark of Revolutionary stock.

Mrs. McNeill was the widow of John McNeill, who preceded her to the grave 59 years ago; she was 86 years old. She was the grand-daughter of Dr. Glascock, who was a surgeon in the Patriot army at the battle of Guilford Court House. Her grandfather, Dr. Glascock, was a sister of Esther Ball, sister of Mary Ball, the mother of George Washington.

In her latter days, Mrs. McNeill delighted to talk about old times and her distinguished Virginia relatives of Revolutionary fame, and recount what her people had told her—after speaking of her relatives—the Glascocks, Ramsays, Balls, Howards, Shurlocks, Muses and others.

She had a most remarkable memory, and was a most interesting conversationalist.

[Mrs. McNeill was a relative of Mr. G. T. Glascock, of Greensboro who is also a descendant of Dr. Glascock, the surgeon of the Patriot army.]

FOUR YEARS AND $500.

The Sentence Imposed on Honeycutt, the Slayer of Deputy Marshal Grier.

William Honeycutt, the murderer of Deputy Marshal Grier, who has been confined in jail in Greensboro for the past year, was tried in Federal Court at Statesville last week. He was tried for distilling and fined $500 and sentenced to four years' imprisonment. On account of the absence of any witnesses, it was impossible to try him for murder.

It will be remembered that the only witness to the homicide, a man by the name of Phillips, was shot from ambush, the shot being fired, it is generally believed, by Honeycutt.

In the Churches.

On account of the protracted meeting at West Market church, there will be no meeting of the Epworth League tonight.

In Centenary church yesterday, Rev. Mr. Wagga preached his second sermon in the series on the "Christian Armor—the Breastplate of Righteousness."

Pastor Johnson yesterday announced that for several Sundays he will preach a series of sermons on "Salvation" and "Sin," preaching in the morning on the former subject and in the evening on the latter. Dr. Johnson will attend the Pee Dee Association at Rockingham this week and Prof. Joyner will conduct the prayer-meeting Wednesday evening.

The reception of the young ladies of the Normal of Baptist faith by the members of West Washington Street church, will occur in the Sunday school rooms Friday evening.

The singing at St. Benedict's Catholic church yesterday was exceptionally fine, the choir singing Roswig's Mass. The solos of Miss Frances O'Brien, Miss Agnes Duffy and Mrs. Hoskins and Mr. McSorley were beautifully rendered.

Will Build on North Elm.

Mr. Charles H. McKnight, who recently sold his residence on Summit avenue to ex-Sheriff Kernodle, of Alamance county, will build on North Elm street, next to Mr. C. M. Vanstory's new home. The location is both beautiful and convenient.

List of Pensioners From Guilford County—Greensboro Marshals at the State Fair—Observer Getting Compliments on its Enterprise.

Special Correspondence of The Telegram.

Raleigh, Oct. 22.—Sup't. J. E. Ray, of the institution for the blind, has returned from St. Augustine, Fla., where by special request he went to aid the superintendent of the Florida institution in opening it. Florida has but a small institution, and the buildings are of wood.

It seems that a lot of the Republicans were by no means desirous that the news should get out that they were called to Greensboro, in conference, by Senator Pritchard. It is to be a large gathering. Dan H. Young, the county chairman for Wake, left for Greensboro this morning. Carl Dunigan was with him.

A train on the Seaboard Air Line was delayed seven hours last night because of a partially burned trestle near Wadeboro.

The Charlotte Observer gets many compliments for its enterprise in deciding to appear every day in the year. It scores a hit.

Next Friday the football teams of the Virginia and North Carolina Agricultural and Mechanical Colleges will play here in the fair grounds.

There will be a number of experts with the shot gun here this week to shoot for the valuable purses and prizes at the State Fair, in the gun contests at Clay pigeons. That noted sport, Edward McKissick, of Asheville, is in charge of this department, and in his usual lively way he has "thrown his soul into it." He will have sportsmen here from all parts of this State and from other States. Professionals are barred.

Among the many assistant marshals named for the State Fair are the following from Greensboro: Will McAdoo, Dr. C. L. Scott, L. V. Clegg, W. F. Clegg, J. W. Coric, R. P. Walters, L. J. Brandt, S. C. Todd, C. P. Sellers, Paul Schenck, Lee H. Battle and Z. V. Conyers.

Yesterday the State Auditor issued and the Treasurer paid a warrant for $831, salary of Theophilus White as State shellfish commissioner. White came here today to get the money. When the Legislature meets in January the matter will be looked into, as the Legislature expressly forbade the payment of any money to White or his deputies. There will be time enough in January to impeach the Treasurer, it is said. The Supreme court is likely to come in for a share of the attention of the Legislature. One of its justices said many months ago that he expected there would impeachment.

Republican Federal office holders are sending out a circular letter giving a garbled version of Judge Boyd's charge in regard to the election law. It is said at Democratic headquarters here that this is an attempt to intimidate election officers. It will be as big a failure as that made just prior to the August election.

The following is the official list of soldier pensioners this year for Guilford county:

is where we stand in the lumber business. At the kicking post, as it were, in regard to prices.

First comes the owner of the timber. He just woke up to the value of it and wants double last year's prices. Then the sawmill man. He hasn't been making a fortune and thinks now he should share a little in the general prosperity.

They say to us: "We must have so much for our trees and work." After a while it is "up to you." Don't kick. You don't suppose we have nerve enough to put up prices unless they had first been put up on us. No, indeed. But prices are NOT high. They have been to low and are just now getting reasonable. Your children will be glad to build at double the price it now costs you. It is a trite, but true saying, if you want to build, "Now is the time."

An Aboriginal Black Sheep.

Denver Post.
Sitting in his smoke-stained tepee
On a pile of epidermis
Snatched from off the game he hunted
Sat the chieftain Skins-the-Beaver
Wrestling with an inward sorrow,
Wrestling with it catch-as-catch-can.
Signs came winging from his bosom,
Chased by groans somewhat sepulchral,
And the eyes once used for seeing
Now were utilized as spillways
For his teardrops to escape through!
With his face cloaked in compassion
Sat the reservation chaplain,
Who had come to see if prayer
And a hymn or two soft warbled
Would calm his ruffled spirits.
In a voice that worked real badly—
One that had sustained fracture—
Skins-the-Beaver thus addressed him:
"Naught that you can say, good parson,
Not a hymn you may unprise
From its cage within your bosom,
Can relieve the hungry torture
That is fiercely eating at me!
When my son was yet an infant
Strapped between his mother's shoulders

Striving hard to crawl 'round nearer
To the commissary quarters
I began to paint his future,
Bright, and warranted fast colors,
On the canvas of ambition.
He would be a dreaded warrior,
As his father was before him,
Be a fighting man from 'way back!
Scalps enough to stuff a mattress,
Or to pad a paleface woman,
Would be dangling from his girdle,
And the echoes of his war-whoop
Ringing through the hills and valleys,
Would strike seven kinds of terror
To the ears of every paleface
Who was not real hard of hearing!
As he grew to noble manhood
I observed with much misgiving
That he aped the styles and customs
Of the tenderfooted whiteskins!
Hid the limb so strongly muscled
In three dollar trousers,
Wore a striped shirt, hand-polished,
And a collar and a necktie
Loud enough to wake the baby,
And he learned to play draw poker
And to smoke the cigarita
And inhale its deadly vapor!
Then he wandered from his people,
To Hardscrabble, Pitkin county,
Care of Lock Box 47.
And the awful news has reached me
That the last great blow is coming!
That the people soon will send him
To the Denver Legislature
On the Democratic ticket!
Leave me, parson! Leave me! Leave me!
For I fain would use some language
Quite impromptu and unstudied
That might grate with cruel harshness
On your gentle Christian nature!
Leave me, for I feel it coming,
And all Helena, Montana,
Couldn't stop it with a cannon."

The leading lady in Hoy's "A Trip to Tramptown," Miss Julia Raymond, is an actress of rare beauty and culture. The large Eastern cities, where most of her theatrical life has been spent, she is a prime favorite, and the appearance of her name among the cast of any play in that territory is all that is needed to insure crowded houses. With Miss Raymond as leading lady, Arnold C. Baldwin as leading man, H. C. Godshaw on heavies and Dick Tracy to look after the humorous side of the play, with a strong cast to support them, Mr. Reiss has a company that he may justly feel proud of, and one that the theatre goers of the States will not be slow to appreciate. In addition to the very best dramatic people Mr. Reiss could procure, he carries sixteen specialty people for your amusement between the acts of Hoy's "A Trip to Tramptown," each of which are a feature within themselves. A grand street parade of forty people and two brass bands will be made at noon, and the combined musical forces will render delightful music in front of the opera house at night, just prior to the opening of the doors. Remember the date, Friday, October 26, at the Academy of Music, and don't be too slow in the matter of securing tickets, for it's not an unusual occurrence by any means for Hoy's "A Trip to Tramptown" Co. to display the S. R. O. Sign.

Large sun spots, astronomers say, caused the extreme heat this summer, and doctors declare nearly all the prostrations were induced by disorders of the stomach. Good health follows good digestion. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat. If you have indigestion or dyspepsia it will quickly relieve and permanently cure you. Howard Gardner.

The caddy may not be nautical, but with him it is always a case of "fore" and after.

It is well to know that DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve will heal a burn and stop the pain at once. It will cure eczema and skin diseases and ugly wounds and sores. It is a certain cure for piles. Counterfeits may be offered you. See that you get the original DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Howard Gardner.

ENGLAND AND GERMANY AGREE.

England and Germany have agreed to act in concert to maintain the territorial integrity of China, and each declares that it will not take advantage of the present crisis to seize territory or exclusive privileges. Coupled to this, they strongly frown upon any lurking desire that any other power may have to do so, but do not declare that they will necessarily act jointly against any power attempting a selfish policy. Nevertheless, it appears to us that this is the longest step yet taken towards arriving at a basis for a united policy in China. Equal advantages for all is the policy of the United States, but how far she will go in concert with Germany and England is not known. Certainly her influence will be on that side, which makes this end of the equation altogether the heavier one. Heretofore Germany's desire has been uncertain. England has stood for years for this policy and when she had virtually been about to surrender it finally, the present crisis brings these powerful confederates in line with her policy. It should not be forgotten, however, that but for the brave and long stand of Britain there would long since have ceased to be any "territorial integrity" of China to stand for now.

The New York Herald's figures are most certainly disheartening ones for Democrats. It puts upon them a despondency which the claims of Mr. Stevenson, however sincere he may be in making them, has no effect of relieving. These figures are not only disheartening, but they are injurious to the Democratic cause. This is from the fact that the Herald is relied upon to give an impartial forecast. Its guess may not be correct, but it is certain that it has had and will have a bad effect on Democratic prospects and a correspondingly good one on Republican hopes.

GATHERING OF THE CLANS.

talked of the condition of the party in the various sections of the State and discussed the best means of polling the full strength of the party at the November election. The visitors filled the rooms at headquarters to overflowing and many of them wanted to make speeches. A few succeeded in gaining recognition and making themselves heard, among them being O. H. Dockery, H. C. Dockery, C. Tom Bailey, Postmaster Mullin and Collector Duncan.

As the visitors departed from headquarters each was presented with a roll of bright-colored lithographs of McKinley and Roosevelt, surrounded by pictures of beautiful fields of waving grain and sleek cattle, suggestive of posters advertising a fair. The State committee probably adopted this method of distributing literature in order to save postage.

Many of the participants left the city on the noon trains and the others will leave this evening and tonight.

NEWBORN FAIR MARSHALS.

A Number of Greensboro Gentlemen Appointed—Interesting Social Events.

Mr. C. S. Bradham, chief marshal of the Newborn fair, which will be held November 12th-19th, has appointed the following young gentlemen of Greensboro as assistant marshals:

Dr. Edmund Harrison, Messrs.

George D. Boyd, Frank Leak, L. W. Crawford, Jr., E. O. Keller, W. T. Gayle, Lacey Sellers, F. C. Boyles, Jesse Rankin, F. L. Reid, G. A. Rankin, John W. King, J. H. Williams, Fred N. Taylor, H. H. Tate and F. W. Eldridge.

The social features of the fair this year will be unusually attractive. Three big balls are to be given, one being a ball poudre and another military in character.

Preachers Speaking for General Carr.

Greensboro is not the only place in North Carolina where the Senatorial contest waxeth warm. It is engaging the attention of the people all over the State, and if reports be true, in some sections ministers have been drawn into the fight. A gentleman who spent Sunday in Greensboro told The Telegram that he knew three preachers in a certain county in the Second Congressional District who were making speeches for Gen. Carr.

A Fistic Encounter on the Train.

A gentleman who was on the train tells The Telegram that Judge Spencer B. Adams, of this city, and Col. John R. Webster, of Reidsville, met on the southbound local passenger train between this place and Reidsville Saturday evening and attempted to settle a difficulty outside the pale of argument. A few blows were passed, but the two gentlemen were separated before any damage was done. Neither the Colonel nor the Judge are averse to fighting when they think they have good cause.

A GOOD THING.

German Syrup is the special prescription of Dr. A. Boschee, a celebrated German physician, and is acknowledged to be one of the most fortunate discoveries in medicine. It quickly cures coughs, colds and all lung troubles of the severest nature, removing, as it does, the cause of the affection and leaving the parts in a strong and healthy condition. It is not an experimental medicine, but has stood the test of years, giving satisfaction in every case, which its rapidly increasing sale every season confirms. Two million bottles sold annually. Boschee's German Syrup was introduced in the United States in 1868, and is now sold in every town and village in the civilized world. Three doses will relieve any ordinary cough. Price 75 cts. Get Green's Prize Almanac. Grissom & Fordham.

For Pinssia Visitors.

A suitable refreshment to offer to the visitors who are glad to rest on the piazza from the journey out of town is iced tea or lemonade or a saucer of strawberries. If you provide strawberries, remember to leave the hulls on. It is considered desirable to serve them that way, because it indicates that the fruit has not received any unnecessary handling. Use the hull of the strawberry as little handle by which to lift it from the saucer and dip it in the pile of soft white sugar heaped in one corner of the plate. Use the pulverized fruit sugar, a mere powder, for the strawberries. Have a plate of lady fingers or rice flour plunkets ready to offer with the fruit.—Detroit Free Press.

Should Have Waited Longer.

"I presume," said the Sweet Young Thing, "that you would call that man who waited 30 years to get to marry the woman he loved foolish."

"Me? No. Of course, he would have shown more sense if he had waited another 30 years," said the Savage Bachelor.—Indianapolis Press.

GOOD ADVICE.

The most miserable things in the world are those suffering from dyspepsia and liver complaint. More than seventy-five per cent of the people in the United States are afflicted with these two diseases and their effects: such as sour stomach, sick headache, habitual costiveness, palpitation of the heart, heart-burn, water-brash, gnawing and burning pains at the pit of the stomach, yellow skin, coated tongue and disagreeable taste in the mouth, coming up of food after eating, low spirits, etc. Go to your druggist and get a bottle of August Flower for 75 cents. Two doses will relieve you. Try it. Get Green's Prize Almanac. Grissom & Fordham.

IMPORTANT!

Greensboro, N. C., Sept. 26th, 1900.

TO OUR CUSTOMERS:

On and after October 15th, 1900, we, the undersigned, will do a strictly cash business. Our reasons are as follows:

1st. Absolute NECESSITY.

2nd. Laundry, the world over, is a recognized cash business and justly so.

3rd. Our accounts are necessarily small, and it causes an endless amount of confusion and expense to collect, besides losses each year in bad bills.

4th. All of our current expenses, such as labor, fuel, gas and supplies are cash, hence the stand we take is forced upon us. While we very much regret, in most cases, to exact the spot cash, yet we must treat all alike, and we see no other way out of the difficulty. We trust our customers will lend us their aid by stating when to return laundry and by being prepared to pay for same when delivered. Our drivers will have positive instructions to return to the laundry all packages not paid for.

We have on sale at office (for cash) coupon books from $1 to $5 which can be left at convenient place at home, so that on delivery of bundle the amount of laundry bill can be torn out by the driver.

VERY RESPECTFULLY,

Progress of the Campaign.

The New York Herald, following its custom in preceding elections, yesterday gave its forecast of the coming event. It claims to have forecasted the election of Cleveland in 1884, of Harrison in 1888 and of Cleveland in 1892. It gives its figures with the utmost confidence, after what it says was the most thorough canvass ever made. There is nothing whatever in it to cheer Democratic hopes.

McKinley and Roosevelt will hold all the border Southern States that went for McKinley and Hobart in 1896, with the exception of Kentucky. Kentucky is doubtful still, but the probabilities are in favor of its going for Bryan. West Virginia, Maryland and Delaware are regarded as safe for the Republican candidates. McKinley will probably have Indiana, and if he gets it the result will be due entirely to the farmer vote. The states which were carried by Bryan in 1896, and which will go for McKinley this year, are South Dakota, Kansas, Washington and Wyoming. Bryan got one electoral vote in California in 1896, California is solid for McKinley now. With the exception of Kentucky McKinley will hold all the States of the Union that he carried in 1896, and make a net gain of eleven votes in California, South Dakota, Wyoming and Washington.

The poll as to congressional districts indicates that in the next house the Republicans will have certainly 185 votes, the Democrats will have 153, there will be three fusionists and Silver Republicans, two Populists and 14 districts are doubtful. In this calculation a solid Democratic delegation from North Carolina is conceded.

ROOSEVELT IN BALTIMORE.

References to Wellington Received With Hisses and Applause—The Interruption Did Not Pan Out.

Baltimore, Oct. 20.—Governor Roosevelt spoke here tonight to as many people as could get within range of his voice. He addressed two meetings, one inside, one outside the Music Hall, the largest auditorium in the city, and everything he said met with enthusiastic applause. Governor Roosevelt was in fair voice and made his points with his usual vigor and emphasis. His references to Senator Wellington were received with mingled hisses and applause, and when he spoke of Mr. Bryan there was considerable cheering and stamping of feet. Aside from this there were no interruptions, which was contrary to expectation, as it had been rumored that men had been sent to the meeting for that purpose.

ACCIDENT TO HANNA

While Speaking on an Impromptu Platform Falls and He Lights His Back.

Omaha, Oct. 20.—Senator Hanna concluded his six day's speaking tour of Minnesota, South Dakota and Nebraska in Omaha tonight, winding up his itinerary by making four speeches, three in South Omaha, where are located the big packing interests of the city and where his audiences were for the most part composed of laboring men, and one at Omaha. Late tonight the special train left over the Burlington road for Chicago, and will arrive there tomorrow morning.

Senator Hanna narrowly escaped serious injury at Auburn, where a stand had been erected on the race track of the fair grounds. The over-crowding of the frail structure and the crush of people around it caused the stand to collapse. Although thrown on his back by the fall of six feet, Senator Hanna was entirely unharmed. A boy clinging to the structure had his leg broken under the timber.

The stand at Auburn had been erected in the middle of the race track at the fair grounds. As Senator Hanna and Senator Dolliver were escorted to the stand, the crowd massed round the frail structure climbed upon it. Senator Hanna and the other occupants of the stand were thrown in a heap.

Sixties went up from the women in the grand stand and for a moment a panic seemed imminent. "Keep back," shouted Mr. Dolliver, "it is all right. No one is hurt."

Mr. Hanna, who had been thrown flat on his back, arose at the same time and the crowd cheered wildly as he stood upon a chair and waved his hat. "We were just giving you an object lesson of how we propose to treat the Democratic party," said he, and the crowd cheered again.

"This was a Democratic platform, I think," and another cheer went up.

LOCAL EXAMPLE OF TRUSTS.

Mr. Bryan Concludes His Four Days' Tour of New York and Runs on a Fine Example of the Evil Effects of Trusts.

With two speeches in the city of Buffalo Saturday night, Mr. Bryan concluded his four days' tour of the State of New York, having made sixty-five speeches.

At Medina, Mr. Bryan devoted almost his entire speech to the trust question and his remarks were based largely on the following statement prepared by a local authority:

"Four years ago there were three factories at Medina under separate management, each employing from 100 to 150 men. These foundries were operated all through the hard times previous to 1896. One of the foundry owners called his men together and told them emphatically that if Mr. Bryan was elected they need not come back after election day, as the foundry would be closed. In July, 1899, these three foundries entered the trust, the Central Foundry Company, which has a monopoly in the manufacture of soil pipe in the United States. Soil pipe was immediately advanced to consumers fully 100 per cent. Very soon one foundry was closed, was left without a watchman and has been burned, then a second one closed and has remained so about a year, and is not expected to be run again; five months ago, the third one was closed by the trust, although it is now claimed it will be reopened. The village was booming and very prosperous when the trust entered it. Today the foundry workers of these three foundries have either gone to other towns, or are among the farmers helping gather their apple crop."

Commenting upon this statement, Mr. Bryan said: "Why need I tell you people what a trust means, in a town like this? They see in the cost of a product one of the natural things that you would expect; but why did you have to wait for this trust to close down three factories in your town and raise the price of pipe in order to learn what the trust meant? Doesn't the Standard Oil trust teach you the same lesson? Doesn't the sugar trust teach you the same lesson? Don't you learn it from a hundred other trusts that plunder the people at every turn? How can a man vote the Republican ticket when he knows that under their administration more trusts have been organized than were organized in the previous history of the country? When he knows that the Republicans neither denounce trusts nor dare to denounce them, and when you go to the head of the Republican national committee he insults the intelligence of the American people by telling them there is no trust in the United States."

Adlai E. Stevenson yesterday said that Indiana is sure to go for Bryan. He also said:

"Ohio should be put down as very likely to give its electoral votes for Bryan. To my mind the two great doubtful States which lean more strongly to the Democratic than to the Republican side in this fight are New York and Ohio."

Mr. Stevenson then made the following estimate of the situation as it stands today: For McKinley—California, 9; Connecticut, 6; Iowa, 13; Maine, 6; Massachusetts, 15; Michigan, 14; Minnesota, 9; New Hampshire, 4; North Dakota, 3; Oregon, 4; Pennsylvania, 32; Rhode Island, 4; Vermont, 4; Wisconsin, 12; Wyoming, 3.—Total, 138.

For Bryan—Alabama, 11; Arkansas, 8; Colorado, 4; Florida, 4; Georgia, 13; Idaho, 3; Indiana, 15; Kentucky, 13; Louisiana, 8; Maryland, 8; Mississippi, 9; Missouri, 17; Montana, 3; Nebraska, 8; Nevada, 3; North Carolina, 11; South Carolina, 9; Tennessee, 12; Texas, 15; Utah, 3; Virginia, 12.—Total, 120.

Doubtful—Illinois, 24; Kansas, 10; New Jersey, 10; New York, 36; Ohio, 23; South Dakota, 4; Washington, 4; West Virginia, 6; Delaware, 3.—Total, 120.

Chairman Hanna yesterday said that South Dakota and Nebraska will go for McKinley.

Mr. Bryan is spending today in West Virginia.

The American Anti-Imperialistic League issued an address Saturday to "all independent voters in the United States," asking them to support Wm. J. Bryan for President.

Hon. Judson Harmon, who succeeded Secretary Olney as Attorney General in Cleveland's cabinet, published a letter Saturday declaring for Bryan. He voted for Palmer and Buckner in 1896.

Feelings of safety pervade the household that uses the One Minute Cough Cure, the only harmless remedy that produces immediate results. It is infallible for coughs, colds, croup and all throat and lung troubles. It will prevent consumption. Howard Gardner.

OUR MANY PEOPLE

Present Population of the United States and Gain.

Interesting Facts Concerning Growth of This Country Ascertained from Recent Enumeration Accounts.

How many persons were there in Uncle Sam's big family on June 1? If this noble American sire is not quite like the fabled dame of Mother Goose, who had "so many children she didn't know what to do," he has so many that he isn't sure but once in ten years what the total number of his offspring is, says the New York Herald.

Measured by the per cent. of gain between the censuses of 1880 and 1890, which was 24.6, the population of the United States to be disclosed by the national roll call, just completed, should reach a total of 77,830,000. As a matter of fact, it does not seem likely that the total will exceed 76,000,000, and probably will not reach that figure.

Several noteworthy factors have been at work to effect this, to many, surprising result. Immigration has fallen off to a remarkable degree. In the ten years ending June 30, 1890, 4,849,000 persons entered this country from foreign lands. In the decade closing with June 30 of this year almost a million less will have sought an asylum on America's shores. These figures omit the immigrants from Canada and Mexico.

The reason for this marked decrease in immigration lies very plainly in the hard times period of 1893-94. A small flood of 623,084 persons entered the United States in the fiscal year of 1892. Two years later the total was barely half as great, and so far spread was the news of our business and financial distress that in 1898 the immigrants were only 229,299, the smallest number since 1879. An increased total last year has been followed by a greater one this year, so that the coming decade will probably see a return to the huge immigration figures of the early 80s.

Coincident with the decline in immigration, due to the business crisis, must be reckoned a decline in the natural growth in population. Adverse financial conditions operate not only to increase the death rate, but also to decrease the birth rate. Aside from this it is a notable fact that the per cent. of natural growth of population has been constantly and rapidly decreasing in this country for a whole century. If we correct the admitted errors in the census tables of 1870, it will be found that the ratio of increase of population by natural growth in each decade has steadily dropped from 35.6 in the 1801-10 period, to 14.1 in the 1881-90 period. In other words, there was born to the average community of 1,000 inhabitants between 1801 and 1810 356 children, while to a similar community between 1881 and 1890 there were born only 141 children.

To give a keen point to this plain truth that the nation is slowing up, so to speak, in its natural growth, the interesting state censuses of 1895 are of decided value. Nine states counted heads in that year. Two in New England, Massachusetts and Rhode Island; one middle state, New Jersey; one southern state, Florida; four middle western states, Iowa, Kansas, Minnesota and South Dakota, and one far western state, Utah. Of this typical group, representing all sections of the country, only one showed an increase in per cent. of population equal to the to be expected half of the increase of the previous decade.

The sole exception was New Jersey, which grew 27.7 per cent. between 1880 and 1890, and 15.7 per cent. between 1890 and 1895. Two causes may explain this increased ratio of growth—proximity to New York city, which, with its ever gathering density of population, forces more and more families to fly to the less crowded and less expensive suburbs, and proximity to the main port of entry of immigrants, who would naturally, in hard times, be loth to spend their savings in taking a long trip into the west.

How much influence this latter consideration had is potently illustrated by the figures of some of the western states' censuses. Thus, Minnesota, which grew more than 66 per cent. between 1880 and 1890, gained but 21 per cent. in the five years following. Kansas, which added 43.2 per cent. to her population between 1880 and 1890, actually lost 6.4 per cent. between 1890 and 1895. In both these cases probably the lack of new settlers from foreign lands was not more marked than the slackening of immigration from other states.

Now some one will ask in view of the sharp decrease in immigration and the probable decrease in natural growth, What is the population of the United States to-day? With all due deference given to the many points involved, it may be fairly estimated that there are between 75,000,000 and 77,000,000 inhabitants in this country. The exact number is nearer the smaller than the larger figure.

A STORY OF "BOBS."

The British Commander Teaches a Little Boy How to Make His Letters.

Lord Roberts' entry into Johannesburg was a spectacle to be remembered by all who beheld it. Soon after ten o'clock he and his staff moved from camp, followed by the guards and Stevenson's brigade, together with a few correspondents.

After formally accepting the surrender of the town Lord Roberts left the building and remounted his charger, and proceeded with the next ceremony, which was the hauling down of the Transvaal flag.

More than one spectator among the rugged burghers standing around appeared touched to the heart when the Vierkleur was lowered. I saw tears streaming down the face of one man as he looked on at the loss of all he had been fighting for during many weary months.

While the national anthem was being played a tall Free Stater, an artillerist, refused to move his hat, and a fellow spectator, a small, stunted man, attempted to pull it off, whereupon a British soldier standing near pushed the aggressor away, saying: "Leave him alone. He fought for his flag. You fought for none."

Early in the evening, soon after the field marshal reached his quarters, one of the officers of his staff approached him in order to discuss a matter of importance. He found the field marshal with one of the innkeeper's little children on his knee trying to teach the mite to trace the letters of the alphabet with a pencil. When the officer entered the room, Lord Roberts looked up with a smile and said: "Don't come now; can't you see I'm busy?"

One hundred and eighty-seven thousand nine hundred and forty-six. These figures represent the total number of cartons packages containing Crackers, sold and shipped from "Langdon's" factory in the month of September. At this time these figures seem almost marvelous, and yet at the rate of increase packages are commanding themselves to the cracker-consuming public, it will be but a short time when the above figures will be but a bagatelle. This is as it should be, and the patent package adopted by the National Biscuit Company is responsible for this condition of affairs. People are beginning to learn that this package preserves the fresh baked crispness, and that the contents are as palatable as when they first came from the oven. Ground has been broken for Mr. T. J. Copeland's new residence on the corner of Blendwood avenue and West Washington street.

A wreck on the Pennsylvania road delayed trains No. 33 and 37, the southbound vestibule and fast mail, this morning. It was after 11 o'clock when they arrived.

Tonight Hon. F. M. Simmons, the Democratic State chairman, will make his first political speech in Greensboro. He is probably the most interesting figure in the political life of this State, and all who can do so should avail themselves of the opportunity of hearing him.

THE PALMER STOCK COMPANY
TONIGHT.

At the Academy of Music this evening Palmer's New York Stock Company will commence a three night's engagement, presenting a repertoire of comedy and dramatic successes.

Although this is their first tour of the South, they are already establishing a reputation equal to that they have made in the North, where they are one of the most popular of popular priced attractions.

"Who is Tompkins?" will be the bill presented this evening. It is said to be one of the most laughable farces ever written and is full of specialties. Tomorrow evening the ever popular "Two Orphans" will be presented.

At Wednesday's matinee "The Strange Adventures of Miss Brown" and "A Celebrated Case" Wednesday night.

Regarding the performance there last Friday evening, the Danville Register says: "Who is Tompkins?" is the title of the roaring farce comedy with which Palmer's New York Stock Company entertained a goodly sized audience at the Academy last night. No one could complain of not getting the worth of their money, either, for the company had struck its proper gait. They filled the bill to the entire satisfaction of the audience, which laughed and applauded all at once. It was clever work by clever people."

The evening prices are 15, 25 and 35 cents. Matinee Wednesday, adults 20, children 10. Reserved seats can be secured at the drug store of John B. Fariss.
